Customer:		Issue date: June 30, 2022
Title subject:	XA connector Socket housing: Addition of production location (Korea plant)	Revision date:

Please note that we would like to add our Korea plant to the current plant as production and shipping location for the XA connector Socket housing as follows.

1. Target product and Part number

Part name: XA connector Socket housing
 Part number: XAP-※V-1 ※:No. of circuits (02 to 06) Note) Natural color only

2. Timing of implementation

After customer's approval (Shipment from the Korea plant is scheduled to start around July 2022.)

3. Contents of the change

Our Korea plant shall be added as production and shipping location for above subject products.

4. Materials used and Quality control methods

Raw material is as usual. The product specifications remain unchanged.

5. Reason for the change

In order to ensure stable supply of products as BCP (Business Continuity Planning) measures, Korea plant shall be added.

6. Labeling

Label of product made in Korea plant is different from that of conventional product made in current plant.

a) "(Q)" indicating the Korea plant-made product shall be prefixed on the beginning of the part number.

e.g.) (Q)XAP-02-1

b) Korea plant ID mark: (Q)

Your thought understanding and consideration would be very much appreciated.
