

Product change notification (PCN)

Title / short description	Packaging change to blister packaging for reflow housings
Affected article category	Connectors
Change category	Form and appearance, Packaging
Change number	CAB230001-01
Reason for PCN/PDN Revision

Purpose/objective of the change

As part of the ongoing improvement process, the packaging for the above-listed products has been changed.

Detailed description of the change

With this change, we are introducing an optimized packaging design. To this end, we have made changes to the opening tabs, among other things. The packaging now has greater rigidity and improved clamping between the cover and blister packaging.
