2. Reasons/Background:

We have been developing and producing the "SMR-element based" magnetic pattern recognition sensor for many years. However, due to the change in our market environment we are unable to continue doing business. Although we made our best efforts to somehow maintain this business, as we could not overcome the rising instability of the parts procurement triggered by the low demand situation, we had no choice but to discontinue these sensor products. Therefore, we appreciate your kind understanding and cooperation on our below described timeline toward the EOL, and provide us with the Last Time Order Estimation by the requested due date.

3. Approval Due:

Dec., 31, 2019

In case we do not get any contacts by the Due Date, we will assume that this Notice with all its contents has been accepted.

We cannot receive any orders after Last Time Order Due.

5. Other:

Once we finish our production, we dispose of the mold equipment.
