Discontinuation notice for Murata Magnetic Switches

Part Number: Vertical detection Type (AS-V series, MRMS203A, 401A, 402A, 402B)

<Background/Reason>

Regretfully, we must inform you that we will cease the production of the following magnetic switch after March, 2015.

This decision has been taken predominantly due to the decline in demand, thus we are no longer able to maintain our production line.
